"I've had the pleasure of working with Alana for a while now and it's been the most pleasant learning experience I've had. I was reluctant in trying to find a vocal coach initially but after my first lesson I was filled with the confidence I needed that proved that I was in the right hands. Alana has ensured everything we work on is tailored to suit my style, my ideas and my aspirations as a vocalist and the improvement in the time since has been tremendous. I'm gaining both the skills and confidence to continue expanding both my range and ideas when approaching my songwriting. Thanks Alana "
